

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE (NDA)

Motto: Respect for all

Alhaji Amadu M.B. Jalloh
Presidential Candidate:

CANDIDATE BACKGROUND

- * Parliamentary candidate in 1977 and 1982 respectively.
- * Former Senior Programme Assistant UNDP.
- * Former Ambassador Saudi Arabia and the Gulf States.
- * In 1994 he became Chairman, Board of Directors Mining and General Services (MGS).
- * A pious Muslim and is married to a woman who hails from the Northern Province.

PARTY BACKGROUND

Formed in 1995 in Kabala Koinadugu District in the Northern Province.

PARTY Headquarters: 5 Duke Street, Off Circular Road Freetown

KEY PARTY PROMISES:

Increased Women's Participation and Influence in Government, families, communities, the economy and the provision of basic services like child healthcare and education.

Efforts will also be made to enhance the active participation of youths in governance by legitimizing the establishment of a youth parliament that will facilitate their involvement in decision making both at local and national levels. Strides would also be made to address the pervasive poverty situation in a holistic manner. The NDA would implement a comprehensive poverty reduction strategy with appropriate micro-economic structural and sectoral policies in its correct context. Such will include consolidating peace and strengthening good governance including transparency and accountability, promoting proper economic growth and human development. Public utilities would be improved as the country moves from post conflict emergency phase to sustainable development. Free primary and secondary education and health facilities would be provided to all Sierra Leoneans. Premium will be placed on the procurement of agricultural equipment which will be made available to all farmers at reasonable cost. The road network in the country would be improved and cooperative banks revitalized.